SCHEDULE FOR THE BASKETBALL TEAM

Trip to States to Be Taken at Christmas

The basketball team is rapidly being developed by Coach Van Wagner into another fast moving delegation, such as represented McGill last year. The club is this year planning to take several trips and play several colleges in the States, as well as enter the Intercollegiate and City Leagues. The men will have a splendid chance to run up against fast basketball. The schedule developed to date is printed below, and several games are still being arranged for by T. W. Eadie, who is manager of the team. The Intercollegiate games will be as close this year as they were last, in as much as the two other Universities have acquired new material, while McGill is using last year's men for the most part.

The practice of the senior squad is being held to-night in the Montreal High School at 6 p.m., and the same squad is desired out. Any day now it is expected that additions will be made to the squad, as a few more men are needed on it.

The Senior basketball schedule is as follows:—
Dec. 9—McGill at Y.M.C.A.—Red.
Dec. 14—Alerts at McGill.
Dec. 16—University of Vermont, Burlington, Vt.
Dec. 29—St. Francis College A. A., Brooklyn, N.Y.
Dec. 30—Crescent A. C., Brooklyn.
Jan. 1—University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pa.
Jan. 3—Utica, Knights of Columbus, Utica, N.Y.
Jan. 10—McGill at M.A.A.A.
Jan. 13—Queen's at McGill.
Jan. 25—Y.M.C.A. Red at McGill.
Jan. 27—McGill at Queen's.
Feb. 2—Toronto at McGill.
Feb. 9—Clarkson College of Technology, Potsdam, N.Y.
Feb. 14—McGill at Alerts.
Feb. 17—McGill at Toronto.

ANGLICANS WILL BE ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Farthing "At Home" at Bishop's Court

Mrs. Farthing, wife of Bishop Farthing, the Bishop of the Diocese of Montreal, is holding an "At Home" on Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 6 p.m. at Bishop's Court. About 450 invitations have been sent out to all the Anglican students of the University. There will be both men and young ladies, and all who have received invitations are assured of a very pleasant afternoon. It is hoped that all concerned please keep the date open.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Christ Church Cathedral have been working very hard to make this event a very successful affair. It is planned with the idea of bringing together all Anglicans of the college from out-of-town and in-town to create a better fellow-feeling. Bishop's Court is at 458 Union Avenue.

SUBSCRIPTION CAMPAIGN TO COMMENCE WED.

Students to Sign Away Caution Money

1924 ANNUAL

Co-operation of All Students Requested

Although the 1924 Annual has been in course of compilation for less than one month, a great deal has been accomplished, and the Board deserves much credit for the energetic manner in which the work is being pursued. The present Board commenced four weeks earlier than that of the 1923 publication, and hopes to issue the book in record time. In two days, on Wednesday, November 29th, the subscription campaign will be inaugurated, and members of the various years will be asked to sign away $3.75 (three dollars and seventy-five cents) of their caution money to secure a copy of the 1924 Annual. A hard and fast rule will be allowed that no books will be published except those subscribed for, so those desirous of possessing the volume must not neglect to place their names on the lists. Annual Board representatives will make personal appeals to the different classes.

The 1924 Annual will form a complete record of one year at McGill, covering each and every aspect of university life. It will contain as much of interest to the youngest freshman or freshette as to the wisest senior. Nothing will be omitted. The sectional clubs of the university were excluded from last year's publication, but after due consideration, the Board decided that they were to be included. For a quarter of a century, the Annual has been the traditional publication of McGill, eagerly awaited each spring, and carefully kept as a precious souvenir of college days. The present Board is making every effort to issue a book worthy of McGill, one which will be remembered as the most complete, the most attractive, and the most interesting volume of all.

Most juniors have had their individual pictures taken by Notman's, but there remain a number who have so far neglected to appear at the Studio. The time for portraits has passed, nevertheless, there is a last chance to pose before the camera. Junior students desirous of appearing in the 1924 Annual, who have not already had their pictures taken, MUST IMMEDIATELY get in touch with R. W. N. Burroughs, Science '24, the Photograph Editor, at St. Louis 5096, to arrange for private sittings. Failure to follow this ruling during this week, will exclude the person or persons from appearing in the Annual. Notman's made a special point of remaining open on Friday night to accommodate juniors. Six men only were present. Such neglect is materially hindering the progress of the Annual's publication, as well as inconveniencing the photographer.

The biographies, class and club write-ups are all to be in the hands of the year representatives by this evening. A few juniors have not yet paid the fifty cent levy charged some weeks ago. They are particularly requested to hand the said amount to a class representative on the Board immediately without fail. While the pictures of the majority of clubs

MOCK PARLIAMENT DATE IS MOOTED

Inter-Faculty Debate Will Be Held Shortly

A meeting of the executive of the Lit. was held over the week-end, at which December 14th was settled upon as the tentative date for the next gathering of the Mock Parliament. It was also decided to arrange to have the Inter-Faculty debates take place within the coming two weeks, if possible. Medicine and Science will probably come together on the sixth of December, while Arts and Law will contest for supremacy about the eighteenth of the same month.

The Inter-University Debating League will have its meeting in Montreal in a very short time, to determine upon the date and the procedure for the Inter-collegiate Debates, which will not be held until after the New Year. Some difficulty has arisen over the insistence of Queen's that Ottawa, Loyola and Bishop's College be included in the I. U. D. L., and the unwillingness of other members of the I. U. D. L. to agree to the proposition. However, the disagreement is purely of a temporary nature.

EXCELLENT MUSIC

University Dance Orchestra Played

The Convocation Hall of the Royal Victoria College was the scene of a gallant array of youth and beauty on Saturday afternoon when the students of R.V.C. held their first tea dance of the season. With about three hundred and twenty-five present and the popular University Dance Orchestra to supply the jazz, the whole went merrily as wedding-bells. Everyone was so happy that when the last dance was announced no one wanted to leave in spite of the lateness of the hour. On either side of the hall tables were set with all that could be desired in the way of refreshments. The tables were decorated very simply but none the less artistically, with red bands of paper criss-crossing the white table cloths. About twenty Freshettes served at the tables and the service could not have been better if they had been professionals—always polite, demure, obliging and ever ready to give one of the many men a dance in addition to a cup of coffee. The lighting in the hall was very artistic, there being neither too much to be embarrassing nor too little to make it impossible for those dancing to make out who it was they bumped last.

The convener, Miss E. M. Campbell, did much to make the dance a success. She was kept very busy introducing, as there were quite a number of men in the majority, but she was ever willing and ready and it was largely through her efforts that the dance was so brilliant a success.

The patronesses were Miss Hurlbatt, Miss Lichtenstein, and Mlle. Touren, and among the guests of honor were Mr. Matthews, Professor and Mrs. Carruthers, and Mr. Woodlands.

The dance committee consisted of the following: Misses E. M. Campbell, A. L. Evans, Gwen Fielders, E. Hutchison, Roba Dunton.

All leaving the dance expressed the hope that the R.V.C. would hold many more of the same nature. Some three or four members of the professoriate and teaching staff were present and few even of the most dignified of them could resist the attraction of the dance. Such events are splendidly democratic in that they bring professor and student together on equal terms to enjoy the same pleasures and maybe (?) discuss the studies of the day.

GRAND MERE VISITED BY COLLEGIANS

Enthusiastic McGill Party Well Received

SOUVENIRS KEPT

Pulp and Paper Club Inspect Laurentide Property

On Friday evening the members of the Pulp and Paper Club of McGill travelled to Grand Mere on an excursion, the object of which was to inspect the Laurentide company's properties at that place.

Thirty-eight spirited fellows and two professors, ex-officio, gathered at the Windsor Station and left for Grand Mere on the 11:30 train last Friday evening. After a night of undisturbed slumber the party arrived in Grand Mere and were met by Mr. Harry Bates, Science '08, Laurentide technical superintendent.

Mr. Bates conducted the party to the Laurentide Inn, where everybody was received as guests of the Laurentide company. An excellent breakfast was served after which Mr. Bates outlined the programme for the day and the party started off on its tour of inspection.

The buildings and lay-out of Grand Mere reveal at once that it is no ordinary place. That it was built for beauty as well as service is shown by the quaint artistic cut stone construction of the various administration and community buildings.

To be an employee of the Laurentide company must be a pleasure, for wonderful care is taken of them and the number of conveniences for their comfort and pleasure is surprising. The spacious assembly hall with dance floor, gymnasium, etc., community building and library; golf course, one of the finest in Canada, tennis courts, model dairy farm, which supplies farm produce for everybody, cafeteria in the mill, as well as large wash and locker rooms, company hospital with its attending medical staff, and last but not least, the Laurentide Inn, where the party were so admirably and hospitably entertained.

The executive staff of the company put themselves at the disposal of the party and the care and trouble which they had expended to make the visit profitable and pleasant was almost too much.

From the hotel the party as a whole went to the power house, one of the finest and most modern in existence. Mr. Riddell, the electrical engineer, explained the general construction of the plant, the generation of power and its transmission to Quebec, Montreal, Shawinigan and Three Rivers.

The power house consists essentially of eight vertical shaft generators each of 22,000 h.p. capacity.

An interesting experiment was described which had been perfected for measuring the flow of water through the low head penstocks.

In brief two electrodes were placed a known distance apart in the penstock. A solution of salt was introduced above the upper electrode which changed the conductivity of the water, and the time taken for this salt to travel between the two points obtained.

THE FEDERATED CHARITIES DRIVE

Campaign Closes Today at One O'clock

The financial campaign for the Federated Charities appears to be successful up to date. The majority of the classes have not yet made their returns but all are expected to report by this afternoon. Although it is so close to Christmas the collectors have found that most of the students have given very liberal offerings. It was thought advisable to hold the campaign open until today at one o'clock instead of last Saturday. Dr. Rexford and Amaron will be at Strathcona Hall today at 1 o'clock in order to receive all the returns. Every class is expected to make a report of what has been collected. Below are the amounts contributed by a few classes who have reported: Commerce '25, $13; Commerce '23, $24.50; Science '25, $34.25; Science '23, $89; Med. '26, $31; R.V.C. '25, $50; Presbyterian College, $10.

THEY'D NEVER BE MISSED

Do you remember that song of Gilbert and Sullivan's sung by the Lord High Executioner in "The Mikado" which tells of all the various bores and nuisances that would never be missed were they quietly decapitated by a cheap and chippy chopper on a big black block? We have forgotten the various types of all the particular pests who got on the nerves of Ko-Ko, the genial executioner of Japan, but there are many of the same kind floating around the campus who might be profitably operated on by that inimitable gentleman.

If we were to attain to the position of Lord High Executioner of these colleges of McGill University the first victims to be hauled off kicking and struggling for decapitation on a fine new scaffold erected on the lower Campus would be the poor misguided wretches who giggle, gossip, and chatter in the library. The agony of trying to study or copy notes while some bright pair across the table are greeting one another with the fervency of long-lost brothers and giving a detailed account of their respective movements, actions and thoughts since they last met—probably a couple of hours earlier—the agony, we maintain, of attempting to concentrate on one's work under these circumstances rises to the pitch of positive mental torture. So off with the heads of these Bibliotechnical Babbler. They'd never be missed.

Having made an end of that species (imagining for the moment that we have assumed the official insignia of Ko-Ko) we should wipe the bloody axe with our pocket handkerchief, and turn our attention to another bright specimen. This is the fellow who holds up the line in the Union Cafeteria for five minutes or so while he chats with the waitress. There we stand behind him, we poor hungry ones, while he lolls across the counter casting a judicial eye over the display of edibles, deciding, changing his mind, and then deciding again, and all the time smiling away to himself and talking to the waitress about—the weather perhaps.

Nobody'll miss HIM. Away to the scaffold.

We are afraid, too, that in our capacity of official executioner we should have to invade the holy sanctuary of the R.V.C. and haul a few weeping damsels to a death similar to that of several of the wives of bluff King Henry. But never mind. They won't be missed. There's the girl, for example, who stays about half an hour on the phone talking to some misguided man or other, and then has the nerve to kick when the extra special he calls up and only keeps you about ten minutes. Away to the block with her. The short sharp shock for all such.

These are only a few examples of the needless annoyance that is caused to others by thoughtlessness. Before such nuisances can be eliminated by the efficient method of the executioner's axe we must be sure that there remains some one among us who shall be judged guiltless, so he may be in a position to accept the post of Lord High Death-Dealer. People in glass houses are not expected to throw stones, and perhaps the best way of getting rid of those whose departure never will be missed is to make sure that we ourselves are not among the offenders.

EDITORIAL NOTE

Saturday's victory by Queen's over Argos may have met with more hilarity, but certainly not with more general acclaim in Kingston than it did at McGill. McGill was not exultant that Argos were defeated, but pleased that Queen's won. A victory by our sister college would be popular at any time, but more particularly this year after so many seasons of ill fortune are we glad to note their successes. From an inferior standing in last season's Intercollegiate Rugby Series to a place in the Dominion finals is indeed an achievement that excites admiration.

CERCLE FRANCAIS MEET TUESDAY

Debate on Merits of City and Country Girls

The Cercle Francais will hold a meeting at the Union on Tuesday night at 8:15.

The speaker of the evening will be Dr. G. H. Brandt, of Pointe aux Trembles College, and President Amaron will occupy the chair. The talk will be on general subjects connected with the French language.

Then will follow an inter-class debate in French on the subject, "Resolved, That the City Girl Makes a Better Wife than the Country Girl." Messrs. Gault and Goldsmith, Comm. '23, will take the affirmative, while the merits of the country lass will be upheld by Martineau and Bourgoin, of Arts '23. These men are well known in college debating circles, as they are master exponents of the debating art, whether speaking in French or in English, so that a very lively and interesting argument seems in prospect. This is a chance for all in college who are interested in French language or literature to improve their acquaintance with it, as a feature of the meetings is the informal discussion that brings the gatherings to a close, while the refreshments provided are of a quality to loosen the most bashful tongues.

ARTS INTER-CLASS DEBATE WEDNESDAY

Freshmen to Debate Against Seniors

On Wednesday afternoon at five o'clock what will probably be one of the closest debates of the Arts Inter-class series will take place in Room 5 of the Arts building when Arts '23 debate Arts '26. Both these classes have upheld their honor so far in the series, Arts '23 having defeated Commerce '23 and Arts '26 Commerce '25. Each team is confident of victory and each intends to put up a very good fight for the semi-final honors.

The resolution is, "That prohibition should be enforced in the Province of Quebec." Arts '26 is upholding the affirmative, and Arts '23 the negative. Arts '23 will be represented by Messrs. H. Wells and H. Freeman, who so remarkably distinguished themselves with it, as a feature of the meet-

OTHER CAMPUSES

FRESHMEN CARRY POSTERS.

Freshmen at the University of Chicago are requested to wear green caps, to which is attached a green silk ribbon not less than two feet long. Furthermore, these ribbons must be kept parallel to the ground, a feat that can only be accomplished by emulating the example of a quarter miler, or closely hugging mother earth. They also serve as publicity mediums by carrying about large posters and placards advertising campus functions.

Not so bad, but still you know, there's something about Baby Bonnets . . .

The girl's rifle teams of DePauw and Indiana Universities held a shoot on Wednesday, the 22nd. Each girl fired 20 rounds of ammunition, 10 from the prone and 10 from the kneeling positions.

At the moment of going to press the result of this match has not been determined, however, ye anxious scribe has been assured by reporters on the scene that casualties will be slight, in all probability. There is an unconfirmed rumour about the effect that the targets in use in this match may be used again. That is, all but one, which did have a bullet hole in it.

In a statement issued for publication, a professor at Colby College denied that he patrolled the streets Wednesday night, or any other night, to prevent students obtaining liquor. The prof. also denied the report that a committee of the faculty had been appointed to watch the students.

Now that that matter is satisfactorily cleared up, we would like to ask the gentleman just why he did patrol the streets.

According to the latest reports there are two great mysteries to be solved on the University of Nebraska Campus. These seem to be the great problems which have caused so much excitement: How is it possible for a girl to come to class one day with beautiful clipped locks, flying merrily across her face, and the next to saunter nonchalantly into her room with perfectly marcelled hair piled high, ripple over ripple, on her woful-fending head? By what mysterious process was she able to create such a luxuriant amount of hair in a single night? Surely our great scientists of to-day have not put something over on us, and have only given the wonderful secret to a favored few?

Then, there is the other still more perplexing mystery, of how it is possible for a boy to so suddenly acquire a slick shining hair that obeys so perfectly its owner's slightest whim and which seemingly no amount of wind or rain in any way mar its perfect rigidity and glossiness. Surely these are mysteries worth solving for each one of us left in the cold, but here we must say, "Ain't nature grand?"

Will anyone having the answer please tell Our Own Reverend Egg? He is exceedingly interested in both subjects.

whether the male sex has become more vain or has developed into a class of thieves which robs co-eds of the prized articles for removing the abhorred shine from their noses.

One proprietor states that men are more careless about leaving belongings in their pockets than women. They often find money, keys, letters, bills, checks and gloves, sometimes feminine ones. More handkerchiefs than anything else are found, some large dirty ones which are promptly thrown away, and some small "ainty ones which the cleaners do not bother because of fond memories undoubtedly clinging to them. Masculine articles are not found in the pockets of the co-eds, however.

Which reminds me—Would the respective owners please call at a convenient hour and remove the handkerchiefs monogrammed E., P., D., Q.?

CAPTAIN CUTTLE'S COLUMN

TETRAULTVILLE AGAIN

Monsieur le Capitain:

You will remember, maybe, that I have wrote you already once before. It is that three weeks are passed since that time when I tell you about one of those ko-heads who have pester me to buy some billets for the sports at the Regal Victorian Colleges. You have give me such good advice that one time so it is one comes again back for some more. It is that my trouble is this. That little petit fille that I tell you about that time, well she leave me alone for quinze jours almost nearly; and me, I begin think she has got over—what shall I say?—her hopeless amour for me. But no. It must be that I am too much le beau garcon, for last week she see me in the library and she come and sell me some tickets for a dance that she want me to go to on Saturday just passed. Well, back home in Tetraultville, I am, as one says, some boy. So I buy two of those billets and I ask if she will allow me maybe to escort her to that affaire. She say yes quick as a flash of thunder and give me two of the ticket and take nearly all the money I got. When the great day at last have come I am arrayed in my best habit and I wear the big tie rouge that was the property one time of my grand-pere and I go the hall of the feminine colleges where the celebration is to be held. And when I come there, what you think, I saw that girl dance with a tall, handsome strong looking Senior who dance as the saying is with divinity. And all the afternoon I sit alone by myself with no body, and when she passed, and have looked at my fine red tie she smile and laugh to herself. Now, mon bon capitain, what do you think of her.

PIERRE.

Ans.—One really couldnt blame her.

QUEEN'S WIN FROM ARGOS IN TORONTO

Leadley Kicked Winning Points in Last Quarter

ENORMOUS CROWD

Every Foot of Ground Hotly Contested

Fighting a mighty battle, Queen's captured the Eastern Football Championship on Saturday at Toronto. Although the ground was covered with snow, Queen's displayed stellar football, followed closely by Argos, who put up a great fight in this battle of Trojans. For the first time in two years Argos met defeat on Saturday, at the hands of the Queen's eleven who carried the tri-colour to victory in the final of the Eastern Rugby championship by a score of 12 to 11. The game was strenuously contested from the first whistle to the last, and the titanic struggle between the two aggregations of athletes brought their supporters to their feet in wild demonstrations. The issue was not decided to the last minute of the game, but the speed of the Queen's men and their fine tackling won them the laurels of the struggle.

Not since that classic struggle of 1914 between McGill and Varsity, has such a gruelling game been seen in Toronto. Point for point the teams fought each other every second of the hour of play. Every ounce of strength, every strategy was thrown into the struggle by both teams, in this mighty endeavour to snatch the palm of victory.

About 17,500 people witnessed this game, the largest crowd to have witnessed a rugby game. The standing room accommodation started as early as eight o'clock, and before noon a large crowd had besieged the Stadium. Queen's trotted out on the field, followed by the Double Blue, the sun then broke through and remained until the start of the game.

As a rugby game, it was an epic that will be written into the sporting history of Canada for all time to come.

The details of play are as follows:—

First Quarter

Leadley kicked to Stirrett, who returned to Harding, who was held on his 40. McKelvey made seven yards on his first down. On a split buck, Harding made yards for Queen's. Stirrett stopped up Leadley's thrust at centre. Batstone was thrown for a loss by Spring. Leadley kicked on his third down to Conacher, who fumbled, and Muirhead recovered.

Leadley kicked to Sullivan from 35 yards out, and Sullivan was held for a point.

Queen's 1; Argos, 0.

Batstone made 10 yards from the kick, and Batstone and Harding went 10 more, but the pass was forward, and Queen's forfeited 15 yards. Queen's fast start had the crowd bewildered. Leadley kicked high and far and Argos backs were palpably nervous.

McKelvey went through centre, but lost the ball to Spring. Leadley was downed in his tracks by Polson on his 15 yard line after an exchange of kicks. He made five on an attempted wing line buck. Walker held Conacher on the kick and Conner lost the ball, but Sullivan recovered. Stirrett went four yards and Conner five.

Leadley ran Conacher's kick out cleverly to his 15-yard line. Harding cracked Argos' centre for four yards. Batstone broke away for 15, but made a bad pass and Polson streaked through and recovered on Queen's 35 yard mark.

Conner and Dinsmore went eight yards on successive bucks. Conacher kicked a pretty field goal from a bad angle, while standing on Queen's 15 yard line.

Argos, 3; Queen's, 1.

McCurry took the kick-off and hoisted to Harding, who was held without yards. Argos lost 15 and on a kicking exchange Leadley ran round the right end for 45 yards. Batstone and Walker combined for 25 yards. Bud Thomas worked a good cross-field run for five more. Batstone sifted through for five more. Leadley kicked high and forced a rouge from thirty yards out.

Queen's, 2; Argos, 3.

Conacher kicked to Leadley, who ran the ball back 20 yards. Thom replaced Fear and McKelvey battered his way for eight yards. Evans was held for a one-yard gain.

There was a delay to mend the string on the yardsticks.

Evans made the distance. Batstone made a pass to Walker, who recovered it when it bounded away from him. Leadley to Batstone to Harding took 30 yards on the left side of the field. Leadley scampered eight more.

Queen's line was holding Argos easily and their backs were running wild. Batstone was thrown heavily after a five-yard gain.

The ground was as hard as flint, and the players felt the heavy tackling. Conacher was hemmed in by a ring of Queen's tacklers and held for a punt on Leadley's high kick.

Queen's, 5; Argos, 3.

Sullivan passed to Conacher, who went five yards, being floored by Walker and Thomas. Conner muffed a pass and Queen's secured via Thomas on Argos' thirty.

McLeod went five yards and Evans also took five. McCormick ran out Leadley's attempted drop to his 15-yard line, where McKelvey grabbed him. Sullivan made two yards and Stirrett five. Lewis was hurled in the tackle. Conacher kicked into touch on his 45-yard line. Mundell went five through right middle. Quarter-time was called with Queen's in possession on Argos' 40-yard line. Queen's 5; Argos, 3.

Second Quarter

Spring was replaced by Earl at the start of the second period. Queen's tore through like wild cats and Sullivan was held five yards out. Stirrett went six yards aided by Conacher. Argos made yards for the first time via Conacher. He tore off fifteen more. Conner again went through a gap in the line for 20 more. Argos lost 15 for offside running. Dinsmore broke away and passed to Conner, who went ten more with tacklers all over him. Leadley was held on his 40 and kicked on first down to Conacher. Argos failed to gain on first down, but made fifteen round Thomas' end on their second attempt.

Dinsmore was rammed through for yards. Stirrett and Conner tested Queen's front rank without any gain recorded. Conacher kicked to Leadley, who was caught by Fear on his three-quarter line. Evans shot through for three. McKelvey rapped Argos line for five. Conner misjudged Leadley's kick, but recovered and ran the ball ten yards to Queen's 40-yard mark.

Argos lost fifteen yards for offside running. Fear hurled Leadley for a loss on a kicking exchange. McKelvey tore through left middle for 40 yards. Leadley and Batstone took the ball to Argos territory after a neat ten yard gain. Walker made four on a criss cross play. Conacher was held on his twenty by Thomas. Conacher kicked to Leadley who made a running return and Conacher misjudged his spiral. Walker tackled Conacher and Thomas scored a touch.

Queen's, 8; Argos, 3.

Leadley converted nicely.

Queen's, 9; Argos, 3.

Batstone returned the kick off to Conacher. Stirrett was held for five yards. Batstone was held tight by Fear, who failed to give yards and forfeited 25 yards. It started to snow again, but Queen's had the bit in their teeth and hurled Argos back on every charge. Queen's lost fifteen on offside running.

Sullivan was held on an exchange for no gain. Conacher ripped through for five yards, and Stirrett went the rest of the way. Stirrett was offside, running ahead of Conacher, and Argos lost 15 more. Moss McCormick broke through and hurled Batstone after the latter had skipped through for ten yards. Conacher made a miscue, but recovered. Thomas was hurt bringing him down.

Queen's tore into the big fellow like wild cats and beat Argos all along the line. McNeill replaced Thomas. McCormick bucked through for yards. On a triple pass Dinsmore to Conner to McCormick Argos gained eight.

Argos again lost 25 through Stirrett being offside. Muirhead banked through for eight on his first attempt. Half-time whistle blew with the ball on the Queen's 45 yard line.

Queen's, 9; Argos, 3.

Queen's carried the play right to Argos from the start. They made seven times to Argos' six. The fumbling of Conacher unsteadied the Double Blue machine, which ran second best all the way. Queen's made a very thorough job of holding Conacher, and his bad fumble gave them a fine lead.

Leadley played marvellous football and he got great support from the rest of the rear guard. Argos lost 150 yards for no yards and offside. Queen's forfeited forty yards. Simpson was as strict as the village schoolmaster, and he caught the Double Blue redhanded all afternoon.

Third Quarter

Conacher kicked to Batstone, who was grassed on his 25 by Hyslop. Mundell went five yards. Harding made four on a centre plunge, and Leadley kicked into touch. Argos lost 15 yards again for offside running. Leadley kicked to Conner, who fumbled on his 35 yard line, but recovered. Conacher passed to McCurry, who ran 35 yards, Argos best gain of the day.

McCurry went five on a centre buck. Conacher kicked to Batstone, who was held by Fear and Thom for a rouge. Queen's, 9; Argos, 4.

Harding slipped around Argos' left end for seven yards, and time was taken off while Harding revived. Thomas replaced McNeill. Evans reversed his field and took yards. He hurled two tacklers, doing a complete somersault and was laid out in the rush. McKelvey slipped off two tacklers and made nine yards. Leadley kicked to Conacher on his forty yard line. Dinsmore to Conacher to Stirrett made a crossfield run for yards. Stirrett banged for yards. Queen's muffed up Argos backfield run, but Conacher recovered. Dinsmore made yards. Conacher tried on inside kick, which Batstone recovered and was held for a rouge.

Queen's, 9; Argos, 5.

Queen's were forced to kick on their third down to Conacher, who was held. As held Conacher, who tried to round his end. He was thrown for a loss on an end run. Batstone was held on his quarter mark. Batstone squirmed through for five yards. Fear recovered Leadley's blocked kick when Batstone failed to grab it. Argos were ten yards out. Conacher went eight yards on the first down and Dinsmore worked remaining two. his way through a hole in the line for the Argos, 10; Queen's, 9.

Conacher converted beautifully from a difficult angle. Argos, 11; Queen's, 9.

Leadley kicked off to McCurry. He returned to Batstone. Queen's attempted end run was smothered. Mundell was felled in his tracks by Young. Conacher took Leadley's kick and advanced five yards. McKenzie replaced Dinsmore at quarter. Batstone was flattened out by Fear and Thom on his 35-yard line. Evans' attempted play was choked off. Leadley made a puny kick, but Argos wings were offside. Conacher burst through centre for 35 yards, carrying deep into Queen's territory. Queen's downed him like a ton of bricks, and he had to take time down to recuperate. Argos lost 15 yards when Stirrett ran offside. Queen's secured and Batstone went through for yards. McKelvey was held on his first down. Batstone wriggled through for 15 yards. Evans was held for a loss. Batstone took four more. Lewis was laid out in a mass play. Conacher left a trail of prostrate tacklers in his wake. Bud Thomas was one of the luckless ones and was forced off. Conacher went 20 yards with half the Queen's team straddling his back. Walker hurled him with a high tackle, and was ruled off. Dinsmore went round the vacated end for 20 more yards. Argos forced the play and slowly forced Queen's back against the wind. Argos lost the ball, failing to make yards on three downs. Queen's made five with McKelvey on the business end.

Leadley broke away for a 45 yard run, Conacher flopping him. It was the best run of the day.

Harding made two yards. They were in great drop kicking position twenty yards out, and Leadley booted a drop goal from 30 yards out. Queen's, 12; Argos, 11.

Batstone made two neat gains putting yards. Dinsmore was laid out in the tackle. McKelvey came on. McCurry took Leadley's short kick for a ten-yard gain. Hyslop went off and was replaced by Stirrett. Conacher was held and Argos lost the ball for offside running. Argos recovered a fumbled ball behind Queen's line. McCurry kicked into touch. Conacher tried an inside kick that went astray and Queen's secured.

ELIMINATION BOUTS HELD ON SATURDAY

Many Promising Men Gave Exhibition

NO KNOCKOUTS

Lister Was Most Outstanding Boxer

Nine very interesting bouts were staged on Saturday afternoon at Molson Hall. There was only one bout which was captured by default, that being won by McKennon from Grier in the 158-lb. class. All other men who did not make their appearance on Saturday would lose by default, but all the opponents did not want to take this advantage. There was not a single knockout and all the winners won on the referee's decision. Ernie Robinson acted as referee and pleased both sides in his most favorable decisions. The next eliminations will take place on Friday evening at 8 p.m. Many interesting bouts are expected. The Ontario Club are staging two splendid bouts tonight at their smoker. Champion will meet Merritt and Marshall vs. Adams. The following are the bouts in their order:

First—Medicine 135-lb. Caron vs. Millegan. Caron was a hard hitter whenever he landed but showed no science through the battle. Millegan did not take any of the advantages or he would have given Caron a more difficult time. Caron won.

Second—Science, 125-lbs. Lister vs. Renfret. Lister had a powerful right which sent his opponent Renfret to the count of eight in the first round. He showed his superiority throughout and was classed as the most accomplished boxer in Saturday's meet. He should be able to make himself victorious in his weight. Lester won.

Third—Medicine 125 lbs. Wiggins vs. Marsh. Wiggins was impaired by his eyesight but he was very shifty on his feet. He would sail into the air and hit his opponent before he knew it. On the whole it was a battle of love taps. Wiggins won.

Fourth—Science 135 lbs. Gray vs. Hunter. Hunter was an experienced boxer and displayed excellent footwork. He knew how to defend himself and was given the decision over Gray, who put up a great fight.

Fifth—Arts 135 lbs. Hamby vs. Latofsky. This was an extra bout but will count in the finals. Both of the men hammered away at each other through the three rounds. They were very tired when the last gong sounded and could hardly stand up. It was a hard decision to render but after consideration it was given to Hamby.

Sixth—Medicine 118 lbs. McKenna vs. Kelnor. Both of these men were over weight so they boxed only an exhibition. Kelnor showed his superiority and was given the decision.

Seventh—Science 145 lbs. O'Brien vs. Champion. O'Brien started out like a wind mill, swinging in every direction. Both were slugging away merrily in the first round but slowed down considerably in the last. O'Brien was a game fighter and was advanced the decision.

Eighth—Science 145 lbs. Dixon vs. Plant. Plant had an advantage over Dixon in reach. The latter fought well and showed signs of a coming fighter. Plant had a slight margin and was awarded the decision.

Ninth—Science 145 lbs. Heroitos vs. Dufresne. Heroitos was much taller than his opponent. Both of them were inexperienced and exchanged many powerful punches. Heroitos won.

INFORMAL DANCE PROMISES SUCCESS

Tickets on Sale Tuesday—Union News

Unusual interest is being centred in the Informals which are held in the Union. They have proved successful in the past, and there is abundant evidence that their popularity will be constantly assured.

One of the most enjoyable events of the season will be the Informal to be held on December 1. Patrons will be pleased to learn that tickets will go on sale on Tuesday at 1 p.m. There will be a great demand for them, and it is doubtful whether the management will be able to supply the required amount. It is therefore necessary that students should meet at the Union early in order to make sure that they get their tickets. A little delay may bring disappointment.

The University Dance Orchestra, which has a reputation of meeting the needs of music-lovers and dancing fads, will as usual furnish the music of the evening.

The musical afternoon tea is going to be a weekly event. This tea is an attractive feature in student life.

It is difficult at times to get stamps, especially when one is rushed; the problem is solved. The Tuck Shop, where stamps and Eversharp pencils with the McGill crest are sold, will always meet the student demand.

TRACK CLUB MEETING ON TUESDAY IN UNION

On Tuesday, at five o'clock, the annual meeting of the McGill Track Club will be held in the Music Room of the Union. The purpose of the meeting is not only to close up the year's work, but also to discuss the items brought up at the recent meeting of the Intercollegiate Track Union. At this meeting several changes in events were suggested, and the matter was put aside for a year, so that the new events could be tried in the inter-faculty track meets. The change of the hammer throw to the javelin is perhaps the most drastic, as there were at ten men trying for the hammer on the Red and White team last year. The introduction of the 220 yard low hurdle event is also to be brought up. This run is popular in the States, and should go well here. It, however, is best on a 220 yard straight away, and as none of the colleges in the Union have this distance, its adaptation is a matter open for discussion. The placing of a walking event in the meet is also to be brought up.

The meeting will be conducted by Johnson, President of the Track Club, and it is hoped that all those interested in the work of the club will turn out.

herd, who recently were successful in their debate against Commerce Freshmen.

Professor Lathan has very kindly consented to act as judge of the debate. He will be assisted by Mr. H. Davis, a graduate, and Mr. Gordon Nairn, of Second Year Arts.

The debate will be held under the auspices of the Literary and Debating Society, and the executive hopes that every student who is free at that hour will endeavour to be present. Any on the staff who may be interested are also invited.

WESTMOUNT IS ATTACKED BY SOLDIERS

City Under Rifle and Machine Gun Fire

MCGILL C.O.T.C.

Contingent Spent Instructive Afternoon

Little did the citizens of Westmount realize that their fair city was the subject of an attack by the McGill Contingent, Canadian Officers Training Corps Saturday afternoon.

Starting from the old Law building, which is now used by the C.O.T.C. as headquarters, the company marched up to and along Cote des Neiges Road. Here they were divided by Lt.-Col. R. R. Thompson into two bodies, each being placed under the charge of a man training for the "B" or Captain certificate. One squad formed the vanguard, while the rest of the men made up the "main guard." The orders for the day were to capture the top of Westmount.

The commanders of both squads were given an excellent opportunity to show how carefully they could act and how quickly they could think, for more than once during the afternoon they found themselves the subjects of ambushed machine gun fire.

The commander of the vanguard, making an attack, succeeded in capturing a machine gun, but soon found himself in a position which necessitated the captain of the main guard ordering his men to fire.

As blank cartridges were used by the men throughout the manoeuvres, the citizens of Westmount were at no time, in reality, under any great danger of losing their lives or of having any of their buildings, public or private, demolished by the fire of the McGill C.O.T.C.

Though the mercury stood rather low in the thermometer, the day was unusually clear, being ideally suited for the work undertaken.

The men turned out in practically full force, and aside from gaining much valuable information and practical experience in methods of attack, gave evidence on the homeward march that they had spent a very enjoyable afternoon.

GRAND MERE IS VISITED BY COLLEGIANS

ed; from which the amount of water in the given time can be calculated and the actual power of the generator obtained.

From the power house the party went to the Community Hall, where Mr. Blanchard, stock control superintendent, gave a very interesting talk on the manufacture of ground wood and sulphite pulps, aided by some very illustrative charts which he had prepared.

The party split up in groups of four. Each group was led by a guide who conducted them through the wood room, groundwood and sulphite mills and very ably explained the various processes and machinery involved in each.

A menu surpassing even that of the Ritz-Carlton was presented to the ravenous members of the party at lunch time. After this bountiful repast everybody again gathered in the Community Hall, where Mr. Van De Carr explained in a very interesting manner the process of making the prepared pulp into newsprint. Charts showing the path followed by the stock were given out as well as blue-prints of the details of the Fourdrinier paper machine. Individual samples of the wire used on this machine were distributed.

As in the morning the groups resumed their tour under the charge of their competent guides, who conducted them through the mixing room, paper machine room and finishing room. The electric steam generators were also visited which were a revelation in scientific achievement.

The party were very sorry not to have been able to thank Mr. George Chahoon for the wonderful visit which his generosity had afforded them, as he was unexpectedly called out of town, but wish to express their sincere appreciation to him and all those of the Laurentide staff who so generously gave of their time and knowledge to make the visit a most enjoyable and instructive one.

The party had the pleasure of being accompanied by Professor Charles McKergow and Dr. A. R. MacLean, who proved to be very sociable chaperons.

The Canadian Pacific Railway deserves to be complimented upon their efficient transportation and excellent service to so large a body.

Those taking the trip were in charge of W. C. Munro and consisted of some thirty-eight members of the Faculties of Applied Science and Commerce.

Great credit should be given to Mr. Munro and Mr. Edward, who organized the trip.

JOHN R. MOTT WILL ADDRESS CANADIAN CLUB

The presence of Dr. John R. Mott in the city on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week will be a matter of much interest to a very large number of people in Montreal, for he is by no means a stranger here. His address under the auspices of the Canadian Club of McGill at the Royal Victoria College on Tuesday will also be welcomed by many at McGill and will no doubt meet with the kind of response that has of late been accorded to Canadian Club speakers.

The name and work of John R. Mott are known and respected throughout Canada, as indeed in practically every country. Perhaps no man's influence has permeated a larger mass of the

For thirty years he has been promoting, supervising and directing movements of world scope among young men, and has frequently been called from humble and unostentatious places into the councils of Presidents and Princes. When feelings were high between East and West he was received in the Oriental countries as a friend and advisor as well as in the councils at home. During the recent war he could move among the warring nations of Europe with a freedom that was denied any official statesman, the reason being that he has proved himself in a real sense a world citizen and has commanded the universal confidence of national leaders. Events of young manhood of the world than his recent years bear out the statement once made by President Roosevelt: "I consider him one of the five greatest statesmen of the world today," and that of the Bishop of Durham: "He is one of the greatest forces of the age."

Rumors have come at various times of offers of high position being made to him, all of which were respectfully declined in favor of his chosen work, i.e., the advancement of the Y.M.C.A. idea throughout the world, the leadership of the student movements through the World's Student Christian Federation and the fostering of international and inter-racial good will. Knowledge of the world, of politics, and of men acquired in his frequent globe tours, combined with his depth of understanding and his qualities of statesmanship have equipped him as few men are equipped for important political tasks, and on a few occasions he has accepted such, as when he went to Mexico in 1916 and to Russia in 1917 on special diplomatic missions at the request of President Wilson. He is convinced however that the ills and evils that afflict human society must be corrected nearer their source than where they emerge as political issues, and to this task he has dedicated his voice and pen, as well as his tremendous powers of organization.

Why waste one's time waiting on street cars when bicycles and knickerbockers are in vogue, say the co-eds of Orange White University? The girls feel that they have solved the problem of speedy locomotion and have already bought up all bicycles in stock in the various stores. Since most of the shops were just able to supply boys' bicycles, knickerbockers were unanimously adopted. The girls have now mastered their machines and promise to entertain the onlookers shortly by several daring feats of skill.
